MUST-VISIT ATTRACTIONS

Pasar Terapung Pulau Suri / Sri Tanjung

This exquisite market is the first floating market in Malaysia. Located at a small island in Tumpat district, Pulau Suri can only be reached by canoes and boats operated by the locals. Here, you can shop for a wide array of traditional food and beverages as well as local handicrafts.

Siti Khadijah Market

This four-storey market features an octagonal shaped building and is the most popular market in Kelantan. You can find basic groceries such as fresh, meat, fish, vegetables and fruits as well as local handicrafts like batik, rattan products, silverwares and many more.

Kampung Laut Heritage

This mosque was moved from its original location to the Nilam Puri Islamic College due to a major flood in 1966. The Kampung Laut Mosque, which is over 400 years old, was moved back to its original location in 2022.

Handicraft Village

This handicraft village is built from wooden elements. It is used as a business center to sell songket, batik, silverware and handicrafts that have high aesthetic value and will certainly attract the attention of every tourist.

Ar-Rahman Mosque

Every construction of Ar-Rahman Mosque features the unique architecture of Islam and Malay heritages. Located at Pulau Gajah Elephant in Sabak, there are over 90 percent of hand carvings on the mosque, half of which are holy verses of the Quran.

Gunung Reng

Gunung Reng features caves shaped like chambers, including Bedak Cave, Payong Cave, Kaca Cave, Rimau Cave, and Batak Cave. Through the entrance of Gunung Reng is the Payong Cave which allows visitors to enter the passage to the cave's chambers and finally to the summit of Gunung Reng.

MUST-VISIT ATTRACTIONS

Culture Centre

This is a place for visitors to see Kelantan's rich cultural heritage and take part in varieties of traditional performances such as Wayang Kulit (shadow puppet show), Kertok (traditional xylophone), Rebana Ubi (giant drum), traditional dances and music.

Jeram Mengaji

Located about 22 kilometers away from Pasir Puteh town, Jeram Mengaji has crystal clear rapids suitable for bathing activities and family recreation. It is also a dairy cattle breeding center, where visitors can buy yogurt and freshly-squeezed milk at the local stall.

Lojing's Rafflesia

Situated at Temiar Settlement in Lojing, visitors can experience for themselves to see the second largest species of Rafflesia in the world. The diameter of the flower ranges from 50 cm and above.

Senok Beach

Casuarina trees that grow beautifully on the beach will give you a sense of feeling as if you are at Nami Island, Korea. The cozy beach breeze calms your mind and soul as you take a break from the hustle and bustle of the city.

Rantau Panjang

Situated near the border of Thailand, Rantau Panjang is a duty-free zone which is a heaven for shopaholics to purchase wide array of Kelantanese products ranging from accessories, clothes, home equipment and decorations, dry food as well as fresh fruits at affordable prices.

Gua Ikan

The Gua Ikan Recreation Park includes the Ikan Cave, Pagar Cave, Keris Cave, and Gelap Cave. Visitors can explore limestone caves with stunning stalactites and stalagmites while enjoying the majestic beauty of flora and fauna.
